

Table of Contents

Introduction

1. The Export of the American National Park Idea in an Age of Empire: The Philippines, 1898-1940

Ian Tyrrell

2. Protecting Patagonia: Science, Conservation and the Pre-History of the Nature State on a South American Frontier, 1903-1934

Emily Wakild

3. Another way to preserve: hunting bans, biosecurity, and the brown bear in Italy, 1930-1960

Wilko Graf von Hardenberg

4. Conservation Politics in the Madras Presidency: Maintaining the Lord Wenlock Downs of the Nilgiris Grasslands, South India, as a National Park, 1930-1950

Siddhartha Krishnan

5. Negotiating the Nature State Beyond the Parks: Conservation in 20th Century North-Central Namibia

Emmanuel Kreike

6. Conventional thinking and the fragile birth of the Nature State in post-war Britain.

Matthew Kelly

7. Behind the Scenes and Out in the Open: Making Colombian National Parks in the 1960s and 70s

Claudia Leal

8. Ordering the Borderland: Settlement and Removal in the Iguazu National Park, Brazil, 1940s-1970s

Frederico Freitas

9. Discovering China's Tropical Rainforests: Shifting Approaches to People and Nature in the late Twentieth Century

Michael Hathaway

10. Nature, State, and Conservation in the Danube Delta: Turning Fishermen into Outlaws

Stefan Dorondel and Veronica Mitroi